

Tarot Courses

Many techniques have been developed to explore the inner landscape of the unconscious, psychotherapy, dream interpretation, guided imagery, meditation - to name but a few. The Mythic Tarot is another such tool that aids self exploration. It draws upon the ancient stories of Greek mythology, connecting us to our psychological inheritance and roots. The Gods and heroes of myth contain a wealth of psychological insight. The Greek Gods with their many sides are the most precise images to describe the multi faceted human psyche. Myths describe our core human patterns of development. The unconscious has intent and speaks to us through the symbolic archetypal images of the cards. The cards reflect back the hidden patterns at work in our life.

Jung, writes that the archetypes are the building blocks of the psyche. The Mythic Tarot with its archetypal approach is a reflection of the archetypes. This allows for an in-depth psychological interpretation

Mythic Tarot - A Modern Approach for Ancient Ideas:

- The mythic/archetypal stories mirror the psychological patterns of both our conscious and unconscious life
- A tool which supports spiritual growth grounded in psychological healing
- A series of images that simultaneously reflect both our conscious and unconscious life, enabling us to create a dialogue/relationship with the processes which are determining our fate
- A tool to reveal what motivates our psychological drives/ambitions
- A tool for tracking the psychological patterns that block our progress
- A tool to identify shadow projections, both dark and light
- A psychological aid that helps to repair and reorganise complexes, through exploring shadow issues at their archetypal core
- A tool for working with guided imagery
- A mythic/archetypal symbolic system that can be related to Jungian psychology
- A symbol system analogues the analytic journey of individuation
- A tool to co-create with our unconscious life/destiny
- A tool for amplifying dream work
- Expressing Jung's archetypes in picture form/images.
- A path for developing consciousness, through encountering archetypal situations

TESTIMONIALS - Here's what some of our students have to say:

"Just wanted to say many thanks for a very interesting couple of days. It certainly opened my eyes to the complexity of the Mythic Tarot but demonstrated how it is so rooted in reality."

JAYNE, HUMAN RESOURCE DIRECTOR

"The beginner's tarot course has been a fascinating and enriching experience. Held in a relaxing and informal environment, the meanings of each card are explained in-depth and the cards relate to each other, telling a story - the story of life itself. I recognised the similarity to certain phases which appear in my own life and the lives of people I know. The cards offer guidance as well as astonishing insights"

CAROLYN, REFLEXOLOGIST

"Just wanted to say thank you again for the weekend course. I really enjoyed it and will be scouring Amazon for a collection of books on Jung & Greek mythology!"

KAREN, ECONOMIST

"Thanks for the exceptional beginner's tarot course this last weekend. I believe as you say that the approach based on using mythic archetypes is potent and revolutionary"

Main aims

We offer tuition on the Mythic Tarot at a Beginners, Intermediate and Advanced level. Each module consists of weekend seminars designed to teach students the many levels of Tarot symbolism. Using a psychological approach to Tarot we will explore the Greek myths and Jungian archetypes and their role in amplifying traditional Tarot symbolism, enabling a more modern holistic use of Tarot, current with today's needs and requirements. (A certificate will be given on completion of all three course levels.)

Greek mythology

The rich mythic stories of the Gods contain a minefield of psychological insight. We will be examining the psychological characteristics of the ancient classical Gods.

We will explore how the myths and the interaction of the deities are a description of our unconscious lives. The continuity of our soul life is revealed via the magical linking through the medium of Tarot to the ancient and modern worlds.

The Following topics are introduced as part of the teaching program. The course also includes teaching students how to integrate therapeutic techniques into their Tarot consultations.

- Introduction to the History and origins of Tarot
- The Greek Gods in today's world
- Healing and incubation in ancient times
- The Italian Renaissance and the birth of the Tarot
- Jung archetypal psychology (Gods) and the Mythic Tarot
- Counselling & Healing: A tool which supports spiritual growth grounded in psychological healing
- Symbolism: Reflecting a message via a conduit (i.e. Mythic Tarot), Psychological Astrology, Dreams and Meditation
- Self Awareness / Self Exploration: A tool to help shadow projections both dark/light
- Meditation & Visualisation: Jung- the imagination is the organ of the unconscious
- Analysis: A tool that helps heal and reorganise complexes, through exploring shadow issues at their archetypal core
- Colour Vibration: Exploring colour and its corresponding Archetypal imagery
- Layouts: The four main spreads, mapping the energy
- Case Supervision: Reading techniques, group discussion/layouts

The God Apollo was the lord of Prophecy. Above his door at his temple at Delphi were the words "Know thy Self". At his shrine his oracle was spoken by a python priestess. The prophecy was given in a form of a riddle or story and it was left to the sitter to go away and work it out. Here we have the link of self knowledge with prophecy.

A Psychological Approach to Tarot

Mythic Tarot Course Content

The cards act as a mirror of the psyche. Learning the therapeutic uses of the cards involves a process of self reflection. Learning self awareness skills is part of the learning dynamic of the Mythic Tarot Course. The course combines a personal journey of transformation, with professional Mythic Tarot training. Equal emphasis is placed on practical application and theoretical understanding. Each course level consists of up to three days exploring the major Arcana and minor Arcana in sequence, combined with the topics listed in the Main Aims.

Beginners & Intermediate Levels

A journey through the 22 cards of the major Arcana from the Fool to the World. Touching on our own archetypal processes. Our rites of passage are reflected in the lives of the Gods of the major Arcana. The major Arcana are about the spiritual causes being the physical events. The images and mythic stories contained in the minor Arcana depict the four dimensions in life expressing the four elements, (Water, Air, Fire and Earth)

WATER

- The Cups: The archetypal love story - the myth of Eros and Psyche
- A feminine journey
- The four tests of Psyche
- Relationships: joining with the other

AIR

- The Swords: The curse of the house of Atreus - the myth of Orestes
- The development of the mind
- Father right over mother right

FIRE

- The Wands: The creative imagination - the myth of Jason and the search for the Golden Fleece.
- The imagination triumphs over the limitations of earth.

EARTH

- The Pentacles : Material life, work and health - myth of Daedalus,
- The master craftsman (with the Minotaur and the labyrinth)
- The moral complexities involved in the pursuit of money.
